AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

8. Aims

To sustain, promote and implement within the nation the manifesto and the values of the Green Party of Nigeria (GPN), subject to the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria 1999 (as amended).

9. Objectives

The Green Party of Nigeria:

- a) Exists to champion and protect the freedom, dignity and well-being of all individuals. In particular to champion the rights of all vulnerable people in the society (Women, Children, Youths, People with disability and minority groups).

- b) Shall strive to build and safeguard a fair, free and open society, through which there will be a balance between the fundamental values of liberty, equality and community, and in which no one shall be enslaved by poverty, ignorance or any form of neglect.
- c) Envisages a world in which all people share the same rights, in which they live together in peace and in which their different culture will be able to develop freely. The GPN therefore, rejects all prejudices and opposes all forms of entrenched privilege and inequality.
- d) Recognises that the quest for freedom and justice can never end and so shall promote human rights and open government, a sustainable economy which serves genuine need, public services of the highest quality, international action based on recognition of the interdependence of all the world's people and responsible stewardship of the earth and its resources.
- e) Believes that people shall be involved in running their communities. We are determined to strengthen the process and ensure that there is a just and representatives system of government with effective National Assembly institutions, freedom of information, decisions taken at the lowest practicable level and a fair voting system for all election.
- f) Shall at all times defend the right to speak, write, worship, associate and vote freely, and we will protect the right of citizens to enjoy privacy in their own lives and homes. GPN believes that sovereignty rests with the people and authority in a democracy is derived from the people. The Party therefore acknowledges their right to determine the form of government best suited to their needs and commit ourselves to the promotion of a democratic national framework within which as much power as feasible is exercised by the States and Local Government Areas of Nigeria.
- g) Shall foster a strong and sustainable economy which encourages the necessary wealth creating processes, develop and use the skills of the people and work to the benefit of all, with a just distribution of the rewards of success. The GPN wants to see democracy, participation and co-operative principle in industry, agriculture and commerce within a competitive environment in which the state allows the market to operate freely where possible but intervene where necessary.

- h) Shall promote scientific research and innovation especially in agricultural development and harness technological changes to human advantage.
- i) Seeks to make the public services responsive and responsible to the people they serve, to encourage variety and innovation within them and to make them available on equal terms to all.
- j) Will ensure that The Party's responsibility for justice and liberty cannot be confined by the national boundaries; we are committed to fight poverty, corruption, oppression, hunger, ignorance, diseases, aggression and other social vices wherever they occur and to promote the free movement of ideas, people, goods and services.
- k) Affirms the values of federalism and integration and work for unity based on these principles. We will contribute to the process of peace and the elimination of world poverty and collectively safeguard democracy by playing a full and constructive role in international organization which share similar aims and objectives. These are the condition of liberty and social justice which is the responsibility of each citizen and the duty of the state to protect and enlarge.
- l) Uphold the integrity and sovereignty of the Federal Republic of Nigeria as one united indivisible political entity.
- m) Promote national integration and the peaceful co-existence of the diverse communities of our country.
- n) Promote an egalitarian society founded on freedom, equality and justice.
- o) Uphold the independence of the judiciary and the Fundamental Rights enshrined in the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria 1999(as amended).

p) Advance the political, social, educational and economic interest of its members and act as the channel of communication between, the government and other political parties or associations.

10. The Party shall pursue these objectives by:

- a. Promoting mutual respect for and understanding of the religious and cultural diversity of Nigeria.
